

WHAT I LIKE, WHAT I'M LIKE

There are things you like and then there's what you are like. The things you like can change all the time, but what you're like pretty much stays the same.

Omi wants to know what you like, and knows that whatever you're like, you're always kind.

What colors do you like?

What foods do you like?

What toys do you like?

What games do you like?

What sports do you like?

What jobs do you like?
